

Gandikota - Belum Caves - Yaganti Temple - Lepakshi Temple 09-11 November 2023

Hidden Grand Canyon of India...GANDIKOTA

Gandikota is a small village in the Kadapa district of Andhra Pradesh that is known for its spectacular gorge ("Gandi" in Telugu) formed by river Pennar that cuts through the Erramala hills.

Other major attraction that allures the visitors is the ancient & magnificent Gandikota fort that sits majestically on top of the gorge. The fort has 2 beautiful ancient temples (Madhavaraya & Ranganatha Swamy), Jamia Masjid, Chaar Minar, large Granary & Pigeon Tower.

Belum Caves - India's Largest & Longest Caves System - The Belum Caves have long passages, galleries, spacious caverns with fresh water and siphons. This natural underground cave system was formed over the course of tens of thousands of years by the constant flow of underground water.

Yaganti Temple: It's a Lord Shiva temple constructed in the 15th century. The temple has beautiful Pushkarini Pond. The devotees believe that the Nandi idol in front of the temple is continuously increasing its size.

Lepakshi Temple: - Also known as Veerbhadra Temple. Built in the 16th century, the architectural features of the temple are in the Vijayanagara style with carvings and paintings at almost every exposed surface of the temple.

Major attractions are the hanging pillar & India's largest monolithic 'Nandi'.
